FROM: Joshua Lainfiesta, YRCC Director

DATE:

SUBJECT: Memo of Understanding between City of Fayetteville and Southeast Fayetteville Community Center, Inc. d/b/a Friends of Yvonne Richardson Community Center

---

RECOMMENDATION:

A resolution to enter into a Memorandum of Understanding with Southeast Fayetteville Community Center, Inc. d/b/a Friends of Yvonne Richardson Community Center (YRCC).

BACKGROUND:

The Friends of YRCC was established in 1995 to serve as an advisory board to the Yvonne Richardson Community Center. Their mission is "Provide support to underserved families of Fayetteville. This support includes social, educational, and recreational programming in hopes of providing life lessons and skills to develop leaders who, in turn, invest in their communities in the future."

Parks, Natural Resources and Cultural Affairs staff works closely with the Friends of YRCC board to achieve this mission and is very thankful for their contributions to support underserved families in Fayetteville. Friends of YRCC have donated over $130,000 to the City for this cause over the past ten years.

DISCUSSION:

The purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding is to outline the responsibilities of each entity, recognizing the City owns and staffs the YRCC and is responsible for the general provision of services to all residents of Fayetteville while Friends of YRCC is focused on ensuring programming is accessible and available to underserved families.
